- Promenade des Anglais | waterfront / urban history | ticket: free | reservation: not needed

From stay: 10-35 min | Mode: walk to the water, then ferry/boat/transit if needed | Cost:

Usually low-cost unless you add a cruise, ferry loop, or paid site.

Why: Default daily walk and orientation line.

Notice: The promenade reflects Nice's 19th-century winter-resort identity and English visitor influence; the curve of the Baie des Anges is the main spatial drama.

LOCAL ORIENTATION

History: Nice sits between Italian and French histories, with Greek/Roman origins, Savoyard and Sardinian periods, 19th-century winter-resort growth, and modern French Riviera identity. Cimiez and Castle Hill help explain the city before beach tourism.

Architecture: Old Nice has tight lanes and warm facades; the Promenade shows resort urbanism; Cimiez adds Roman and Belle Epoque layers; the Russian Cathedral adds an unexpected imperial Riviera chapter.

Culture: Nice is market, sea, old town, art museums, and short coastal hops. It works best with morning markets, afternoon shade or museum time, and sunset waterfront walking.

TRAVEL GUIDE ADD-ONS

Source: A Local's Guide to Travel in Nice, France.pdf

Note: The Nice guide leans local: old town, Cimiez, coastal train hops, markets, and slower neighborhood rhythm.

- Cimiez Hill museums and view | history / art | Budget: Museum ticket if entering.

Why: The guide specifically suggests Cimiez for the archaeology museum and art museums such as Matisse/Chagall.

Use when: Good afternoon shade/rain option.

Logistics: Bus or walk uphill; choose one museum plus the hill setting.

Tags: museum, rainy-day, history

- Cours Saleya terrace pause | market / cafe | Budget: Food/drink spend.

Why: The guide suggests returning to Cours Saleya for a terrace or ice cream after sightseeing.

Use when: Good late afternoon or after old-town wandering.

Logistics: Use it as a flexible food/drink stop, not a hard reservation.

Tags: food, market, easy

- Eze beach instead of only Eze village | coastal swim / train hop | Budget: Train plus beach food/drinks.

Why: The guide notes the beach at Eze as a practical alternative if the perched village is not appealing.

Use when: Warm clear day; use if you want sea time more than village crowds.

Logistics: Train east; beach gets deep quickly, so treat swimming carefully.

Tags: beach, train-hop, clear-day

- Old Nice plus sea-edge ice cream | neighborhood | Budget: Free plus snacks.

Why: The guide's rhythm favors old town, markets, and waterfront breaks.

Use when: Best first or last day in Nice.

Logistics: Keep it compact: old lanes, market edge, Promenade, and a short cafe/gelato stop.

Tags: walk, low-cost, food

- Villefranche or Cap Ferrat section | coastal walk | Budget: Train/bus plus food.

Why: The guide's local Riviera framing supports short train/coast hops instead of overstuffed day trips.

Use when: Clear day with moderate walking energy.

Logistics: Pick one coastal target; do not combine every village.
