SPECIAL EVENTS

- French Open / Roland-Garros Opening Week | 2026-05-19 | tickets already bought; budget for transit and stadium food

Why: You already have tickets. This is the fixed anchor for Tuesday in Paris and should override generic sightseeing that day.

Logistics: Stade Roland-Garros is across town from Montorgueil. Use Metro line 9 toward Michel-Ange Molitor/Porte d'Auteuil, or taxi if energy is low.

Source: Official Roland-Garros Opening Week schedule/ticketing. | <https://tickets.rolandgarros.com/en/opening-week>

- Fete de la Nature | 2026-05-20 to 2026-05-21 | usually free or low-cost

Why: Nationwide nature programming overlaps the Paris stay; useful if you want a low-cost garden/park alternative after the tennis day.

Logistics: Check the official event map close to the date; pick only events inside Paris to avoid adding transit complexity.

- Rue Montorgueil loop | neighborhood walk | ticket: free | reservation: not needed

From stay: 5-25 min | Mode: walk if weather and energy are decent | Cost: Mostly free or low-cost; food/snacks are the main spend.

Why: Low-friction arrival reset near the apartment.

Notice: Use this as a visual/context stop; check the base HTML for links.

Hours: anytime | Verified 2026-05-16

- Seine evening walk | walk / viewpoint | ticket: free | reservation: not needed

From stay: 10-35 min | Mode: walk to the water, then ferry/boat/transit if needed | Cost:

Usually low-cost unless you add a cruise, ferry loop, or paid site.

Why: Low-planning romantic evening route after jet lag.

Notice: Use this as a visual/context stop; check the base HTML for links.

Hours: anytime | Verified 2026-05-16

- Eiffel Tower | monument / viewpoint | ticket: timed ticket if ascending | reservation: needed

From stay: 30-40 min | Mode: Metro/RER or taxi | Cost: Exterior is free; ascent is the costly part.

Why: Go for the exterior river view even if you skip going up.

Notice: Built for the 1889 Exposition Universelle, it was a radical iron engineering showcase before becoming the visual shorthand for Paris.

- Notre-Dame de Paris | cathedral / exterior | ticket: free entry or timed access rules may vary | reservation: optional

From stay: 24-32 min | Mode: walk or Metro | Cost: Exterior is free; entry rules vary.

Why: Pair with Sainte-Chapelle and the river islands.

Notice: A Gothic cathedral begun in the 12th century; look for the flying buttresses, west facade portals, and the way the building anchors Ile de la Cite.

- Arc de Triomphe | monument / viewpoint | ticket: ticketed for terrace | reservation: recommended

From stay: 25-35 min | Mode: Metro | Cost: Exterior is free; terrace ticket optional.

Why: Best used as a late-day panorama if energy is good.

Notice: It sits on the historic axis from the Louvre toward La Defense; from the terrace you can read Paris as a set of radiating avenues.

- Moulin Rouge / Pigalle exterior | nightlife / architecture | ticket: show ticket only if

attending | reservation: needed for show

From stay: 18-28 min | Mode: Metro or taxi at night | Cost: Exterior is free; show is expensive.

Why: Worth seeing as a lit-up facade even if you skip the show.

Notice: The red windmill is a Belle Epoque cabaret symbol from Montmartre's entertainment history; treat the area as atmosphere, not a must-book.

Hours: show schedule varies | Verified 2026-05-16

- Paris Catacombs | underground / history | ticket: timed ticket | reservation: needed

From stay: 30-40 min | Mode: Metro | Cost: Ticketed and stairs-heavy.

Why: A high-interest weird-history option, but only if timed tickets and stairs are acceptable.

Notice: The ossuary occupies former limestone quarries; it is one of the clearest reminders that Paris was literally built from the stone under itself.

- Musee d'Orsay | museum / architecture | ticket: ticketed | reservation: recommended

From stay: 25-35 min | Mode: walk/Metro | Cost: Ticketed; good rainy-day value.

Why: Best alternative if the Louvre feels too large.

Notice: The museum is inside a former Beaux-Arts railway station; the building itself is part of the visit, especially the clock and river-facing nave.

- Sacre-Coeur and Montmartre | viewpoint / neighborhood | ticket: free basilica; dome ticket if climbing | reservation: optional

From stay: 25-35 min | Mode: Metro plus uphill walk | Cost: Basilica free; dome optional.

Why: Good if you want a classic Paris view and village-like lanes.

Notice: The basilica's bright stone and hilltop mass make it a 19th-century religious/political statement as much as a viewpoint.

- Palais Garnier | opera house / architecture | ticket: ticketed visit | reservation: recommended

From stay: 15-35 min | Mode: walk, metro/tram/bus, or short taxi | Cost: Ticketed; pick one paid anchor instead of stacking several.

Why: Rainy-day interior if you want a grand architectural hit without a huge museum.

Notice: A Second Empire showpiece with marble staircases, gilding, and theatrical urban planning around the Opera district.

- Place des Vosges | square / neighborhood | ticket: free | reservation: not needed

From stay: 5-25 min | Mode: walk if weather and energy are decent | Cost: Mostly free or low-cost; food/snacks are the main spend.

Why: A calm Marais stop with benches and arcades.

Notice: One of Paris's earliest planned royal squares; the uniform brick-and-stone arcades show a different Paris than Haussmann boulevards.

Hours: anytime | Verified 2026-05-16

- Centre Pompidou exterior | modern architecture | ticket: ticketed museum; exterior free | reservation: recommended

From stay: 15-35 min | Mode: walk, metro/tram/bus, or short taxi | Cost: Ticketed; pick one paid anchor instead of stacking several.

Why: Use as a quick visual contrast to medieval/Haussmann Paris.

Notice: The building turns services and structure inside out; pipes, escalators, and color coding become the facade.

LOCAL ORIENTATION

History: Paris began on and around the Seine islands, then grew through Roman, medieval, royal, revolutionary, imperial, and modern layers. Staying near Montorgueil puts you close to the Right Bank trading streets, Les Halles market history, the Louvre royal axis, and Ile de la Cite's older religious and civic core.

Architecture: Look for Gothic structure on Ile de la Cite, Haussmann apartment blocks and boulevards, iron-and-glass passages, Belle Epoque entertainment facades around Pigalle, and the sharp contrast between medieval street scale and big state monuments.

Culture: Paris is a museum city, but also a cafe, bakery, market, and walking city. The useful rhythm is one major anchor plus neighborhood wandering, not stacking paid sights all day.

Food scene: This is a strong base for bakeries, market streets, crepes/galettes, seafood bars, wine bars, and vegetable-forward modern bistros. For Michelle, prioritize places with shellfish, pasta, salads, vegetable plates, or flexible market meals.

Known for: The Louvre, Notre-Dame, Sainte-Chapelle, the Seine, Eiffel Tower views, Montmartre, cafe culture, fashion, art history, and the French Open at Roland-Garros during this arrival stay.

TRAVEL GUIDE ADD-ONS

Source: Paris, France: A Complete Travel Guide to the City of Light.pdf

Note: Use these as extra Paris ideas if the main plans feel too rigid or weather changes.

- Eiffel Tower viewpoint loop | view / walk | Budget: Free unless you add tower tickets.

Why: The guide emphasizes seeing the tower from multiple viewpoints, not only going up it.

Use when: Best for a low-ticket evening or clear morning.

Logistics: Pair Trocadero, Pont d'Iena, Champ de Mars, Rue de l'Universite, or Bir-Hakeim rather than trying every viewpoint.

Tags: free, iconic, photo

- Covered passageways | rainy-day walk | Budget: Free to browse.

Why: The guide calls out Paris's historic glass-roofed passages as a good hidden-gem retreat.

Use when: Use during rain, heat, or when you want shopping/cafe wandering without a museum.

Logistics: Start with Galerie Vivienne, Passage du Grand Cerf, Passage Jouffroy, or nearby passages close to the Right Bank.

Tags: rainy-day, architecture, low-cost

- Montmartre village wander | neighborhood | Budget: Free plus food/drinks.

Why: The guide frames Montmartre as a small-village-feeling Paris neighborhood.

Use when: Good when you want atmosphere more than ticketed sights.

Logistics: Go early or late; include Sacre-Coeur exterior, side lanes, cafe time, and skip the densest souvenir stretch if crowded.

Tags: walk, views, neighborhood

- Palais Garnier plus Galeries Lafayette dome | interior / architecture | Budget: Mixed: free browsing plus paid opera visit if chosen.

Why: Both are highlighted for ornate interiors and classic Paris spectacle.

Use when: Useful on a weather-flex day near Opera.

Logistics: Do the opera interior only if tickets/timing are easy; Galeries Lafayette dome is the lower-friction add-on.

Tags: architecture, rainy-day, interior

- Luxembourg or Tuileries garden pause | garden / recovery | Budget: Free.

Why: The guide highlights these as classic Paris strolling spaces.

Use when: Use between bigger sights or when energy drops.

Logistics: Pick the garden nearest the day's route; do not cross town just for this.

Tags: free, recovery, walk

- Atelier des Lumieres | immersive art | Budget: Ticketed.

Why: The guide strongly recommends it as an immersive art experience.

Use when: Rainy-day or lower-walking alternative if current exhibit looks good.

Logistics: Check current exhibit and timed tickets before committing.
